SAFFIOTI ANNOUNCES WINNER OF CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION

Local Member for West Swan Rita Saffioti today visited Caversham Primary School and Swan Valley Anglican Community School to announce the winners of her Christmas card competition for 2011.

Ms Saffioti has held the competition for three years and it has been a great success.

The competition for local primary school students is held each year and the children are invited to draw a picture for her 2011 Christmas cards, which will be sent to households in the West Swan electorate. This year Ellenbrook residents will also receive her Christmas Card.

“The drawing theme for this year was What Christmas Means to Me,” she said.

Today Ms Saffioti announced 9 year old, Olivia Clements from Swan Valley Anglican Community School as the winner of the competition.

“Olivia’s drawing of Father Christmas by the tree was so bright and colourful,” Ms Saffioti said.

Ms Saffioti awarded runner-up to Tameeka Manley from Caversham Primary School. Second runner-up was awarded Catriona Jones and third runner-up to Hannah Seery, both from Swan Valley Anglican Community School.

The winners received an Achievement Certificate and a book shop voucher.

On her visits to the schools Ms Saffioti thanked Mrs Kerry Gillies from Caversham and Ms Carol Edgcombe and Ms Allison Williams from Swan Valley Anglican Community School, for having their classes participate in the competition.

“I thank all the students for their fabulous works of art this year,” Ms Saffioti said.

All entries will be on display in Ms Saffioti’s electorate office window at Unit 1 / 23 Exhibition Drive Malaga.
